

I urge you to retain the current media ownership rules in your June 2nd vote. Allowing further consolidation across multiple media will favorably serve business at the expense of the public at large. It will allow for even greater homogenization of media, and decrease the opportunity for local and/or alternate viewpoints to be heard.